

SUBURBAN WINNER IS WILDLY CHEERED BY CROWD

into the grounds long before the running of the big event, and such a com-modious garage as this enclosure fur-nished to-day has never been equaled. It surpassed the dream of the wildest nutt.

Many Tally-Ho Parties.

Tally-ho parties driven from Manhattan and Brooklyn places of exclusive rendezvous hauled into their allotted places until several score of the doomed-to-antiquity vehicles were lined up, each with its gay party of men and women.

The astute horse owners, calculating and cold, figuring only on the chance of their and the other fellow's horses, contemplated the Suburban only. They were prepared to go into the betting ring with their greenbacks only when they had received the right tip, and the tip before the running proved to be Colonial Girl, the one-time conqueror of the mighty Hermis. She had worked a mile in 1:44 easily in preparation for the race and was declared to be on edge. There were other tips, of course.

Thousands Were Bet.

As a consequence thousands were bet on Colonial Girl by the wise men of the paddock. John A. Drake, always a prominent figure at the races, was here to-day, but had no representative in the Suburban. He had scratched Ort Wells because of a wordy clash with several stewards, it was said, and would not run any of his horses at the present meeting. The story could not be verified, however.

The track was ideal, being lightning fast, having dried out to the dusty stage under the influence of a scorching sun.

Observe the Suburban handicap, there were many interesting events on the card, notably the Double Event for two-year-olds, in which Water Pearl, Charles Edward, Supreme, Baller and others were entries. There was a steeplechase and other good races, making a promise of fine sport.

Colony Won Easily.

Brookdale Nymph went to the front and opened up a gap of several lengths on the field, headed by Colony. They ran this way for a mile and a half. Colony won by the front and won easily by two lengths from Paul Jones, who was fifteen lengths in front of Kernel.

Brockdale Nymph's Record.

Brookdale Nymph went to the front and, making all the running, won easily by two lengths. Tradition was under a drive all the way. The time of the race was six furlongs in 1:12 that is a new track record.

Ballet Outgamed Water Pearl.

Water Pearl went to the front and followed Ethon and Ethion. Ballet closed in that order to the bend for home where Ballet closed on Water Pearl, coming up on the outside while Ethion closed on the inside. For a few strides the race was on, and then Ballet slowly forged to the front and won easily by a length from Water Pearl, who beat Ethion three lengths for the place.

George S. Davis All the Way.

George S. Davis made all the running and won easily by three lengths from Ethion, who was second all the way. Yankee Girl closed strong and was third, six lengths away.

Benevolent Wins Easily.

Ethion made all the running and won easily by five lengths from Prince Frederick, who was second all the way. Yankee Girl closed strong and was third.

Prince Frederick and Yankee Girl closed strong.
